Welcome to Coraki enjoy the serenity ...

Situated at the junction of the Richmond and Wilson rivers – hence the Aboriginal name for 'meeting of the waters' - Coraki lies to the west of Pacific Highway and south west of Ballina. The major access road from the Pacific Highway is from Woodburn, which is 18km from Coraki, and connects Coraki with Casino, 31km further inland.

Coraki is the tea tree capital of the region. Its quiet charm and the genuine hospitality of the locals is a welcome bonus.

Boating and water sports abound and there is even a nine-hole golf course which would stand the test of the most demanding of golfers.

The Coraki Riverside Caravan Park, centrally located in the village right beside the river, makes for a peaceful home base when visiting the region.

Park the van riverside, or set up your camp, then chill out and decide how you're going to indulge yourself in this diverse region.

Expect friendly locals and country-style hospitality.

You and your family can rest assured that you're in a safe, secure environment, where you can relax, unwind, catch up with old friends and make new ones.

Book now - you won't be sorry!
