

Group and School Bookings

Whether your group is on holidays in the region, a part of a local group, or a school group looking to learn about the history of Casino and district, we welcome you.

We have activity books (shown below) for children to follow clues and solve puzzles throughout the museum.

Contact us and we will organise a time for you to come through the museum, even on days that we are scheduled to be closed.

We are always ready to make your visit a pleasurable one.

Find the museum

31B Walker St. Casino, NSW 2470

Open Wednesday, Thursday and Friday,
10am to 2pm or by appointment

Contact us

PH: 0437 005 838

Email: casinohistorymuseum@outlook.com

Website: www.casinohistoricalsociety.com

Facebook: Casino and District Historical Society

Discover something intriguing

at the

CASINO HISTORICAL MUSEUM

Brought to you by

The Casino & District

Historical Society

Est. 1965

Historical Walk

Starting across the road from the Post Office, follow the map below to find 19 informative signs around Casino. Each sign reveals a wealth of information about the location in which it stands.

Local Monuments

Each monument, located at various spots, has local historical significance and was supplied by Casino Historical Society.

Boiling Down Pot (1840).

First Richmond River Crossing (1840)

Wooroowoogan Cattle Station (1842-1970)

Research Facilities

The Society maintains a collection of family files, photographs, newspapers and other printed material relating to the history of the district and its early settlers

Research inquiries are welcome. Contact the Society to arrange an appointment today.

Discover the Museum

The Casino Historical Museum has a comprehensive collection of objects collected with the origins of Casino and surrounding districts that reflects the lifestyle of early residents.

Over 8000 historical items on display including Aboriginal artifacts, farming equipment, musical instruments, fashions and everything in between in the museums 480sq metre building.

About the Museum

The Casino and District Historical Society Inc. was formed in 1965 and consists of a group of people dedicated to preserving all aspects of Australian culture and early history of the local area for our history and for future generations to enjoy.

New members welcome!